

BIG CATS

Donna H. Bowman, Author

Did you hear something?

The padded and fur lined paws of big cats allow them to creep almost silently. The pugmark (paw print) of a Siberian Tiger can be seven inches across.

How wide is your foot print?

"Young readers will enjoy this interesting and informative book on one of nature's marvels."

Patrick Thomas, PhD, General Curator, Bronx Zoo, Wildlife Conservation Society (NY)